

What is DBImprove?

It is a data validation service for companies (customers / suppliers)

For whom

This service was created for those who want to keep their contact information well-organized and up-to-date.

Advantages of the service

DBImprove service includes:

Phone agents with the knowledge to provide the information in the most suitable form.

- Appropriate forms to assemble information.
- Predictive dialing system that optimizes the performance of the service.
- Direct integration with client databases allowing him to have his information updated in real-time.
- Maximum security and privacy when processing the information.

Service features

- Quick implementation.
- Unobtrusive service with existent platform.
- Multi-Language calls.
- Flexible working hours.
- Statistic support for the performed actions.
- Unified collection of information.

DBImprove is a product of Gestión Tecnológica de Comunicaciones, S.L.

For further information, please don't hesitate to contact us by the number 902 525160 or by the e-mail info@gestecom.es and we'll make a detailed budget for the support you need.